

Most Holy Family Monastery

Dear Reader,

We at Most Holy Family Monastery are, by the grace of God, making a very huge impact on the world. On the web traffic reporting website alexa.com, our website, as of this December 2007, is ranked #11 in the world in the section which ranks “Catholic” websites. We are getting about five to six thousand new people coming to our website every day. For example, from Sept. 30 to Nov. 30, 2007 (62 days) our website received over 8 million hits and over 333,000 unique visitors. We’re getting large numbers of new people in contact with our apostolate through various means of advertising. In addition to our website activity, hundreds of thousands of copies of our tapes and magazines have been distributed. We currently have five members in our religious community. The newest member of our community is a convert from Protestantism. He heard me twice as a guest on “Coast to Coast AM” (the most listened to late-night radio talk show in the U.S.) and converted. We also have listed a few testimonials below to demonstrate what kind of life-changing experiences have happened to many good willed people all over the world because they had a chance to view and read our information on the Catholic faith. Getting people the truth and the true knowledge of the faith is the most important thing in the whole world. As the Athanasian Creed states: “whoever wishes to be saved needs above all to hold the Catholic faith. Unless one preserves this faith whole and undefiled, he will without a doubt perish in eternity.” This is why it’s critical for you to support our monastery. Unlike other apostolates - many of which profess to be Catholic and traditionally Catholic but almost none of them are fully, authentically and uncompromisingly Catholic - our apostolate is not about putting up big buildings or giving people externals. Our apostolate is about converting people to the Catholic faith, helping people come out of the false Vatican II “Church” and strengthening and further educating those who have the faith. Our website provides people with the essential information they need for salvation: the most in-depth information in the world about what happened after Vatican II, how to pray the Rosary and have true devotion to Our Lady, how to convert, answers to questions and spiritual direction, abundant news updates, lives of the saints, Church history and much more. We could reach even more people and make a much bigger impact than we are currently making, but it takes more resources. That is why we are asking for your financial support. We are asking especially those with a lot of extra funds to send us large contributions so that we might be able to change many more lives and help save many more souls. As St. James says, “to him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is sin” (James 4:17). During this holy time of Christmas, when God decided to come into the world to save mankind from eternal Hell, please support our critical mission to save souls.

In the Holy Family, Bro. Michael Dimond O.S.B.

I just received your new book. It's marvellous, remarkable, outstanding. I couldn't stop reading it. Cecilia Buse, Surprise, AZ

The book, What Really Happened to the Catholic Church after Vatican II, packs a definitive and decisive barefisted punch in the jaw to this prevalent Luciferian conspiracy representing the common consensus of contemporary Catholicism... I consider it second only to Sacred Scripture as a mandatory book for all Catholics of the current age. Your bold presentation of facts drove me out of a sleepwalk into delusion and damnation... the "Death and the Journey Into Hell DVD." It scared me and did more to force my solemn contemplation of Eternity and God's Judgment than anything I ever saw. It is incredible. I thank God for MHFM... I pray I can promote your productions more and more... Henry Benton, Monroeville, NJ.

By the grace of God I found your site yesterday. It is amazing. T. Ray Aspinwall

My wife and I have been reading your website for three weeks now and are gaining spiritual strength by the day. It is like

Michele Pacelli

I am a 16 year old girl named Julie. I am very glad to say that I am proud of all you are doing. I really admire what you are trying to do... almost EVERYTHING I know about God is because of you.... I want to say... if it wasn't for you and for our Lord, my soul would have perished by now...

I wish to thank you in the name of Our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ, whose divine Providence made it possible for me to stumble on your site and I have enjoyed every time spent going through your articles. They are edifying but challenging... You know we in Africa and Nigeria in particular have had the faith for less than 100 years when the changes of Vatican 11 set in... Peter Agbebaku

I have no idea how I first came upon your website (a "chance" encounter, as they say) but I quickly saw how important your various articles are. I have ordered your introductory materials and am now actively seeking to become a member of the true Catholic Faith. Thanks be to God, our saviour, for directing me to your site... Suther

First of all, I wish to say how informative and useful I find your website. As a convert from the Protestant religion, I was able to recognise the Novus Ordo church as simply a modern form of Protestant heresy. However, your website has given me great help in realising how this happened and in explaining the sedevacantist position, which I now embrace (I should note that there are quite a number of sedevacantists within the SSPX in the United Kingdom) Scott, England

You really opened up my eyes. Thank you so much, and God bless. Michael Dennie, Troy, MI.

Thanks to MHFM I am coming back to the TRUE FAITH - God Bless, Dennis, Hebron, KY.

I am watching the new mass video and I am absolutely bowled over. By the way, fantastic website. Michael Thayer

The Padre Pio book may well be the most important book of our era. I wish you much success in its distribution. Mark Lillywhite, Alhambra, CA.

My name is Maxim Bychkov. I live in Moscow. I'm 26 years old. I'm catholic. In the modern world it is very difficult to be catholic. I ask Your prayers for me. Maxim Bychkov, Moscow

Thank you very much for the creation and miracles DVD. I firmly believe it is the most important one of our time. Dennis Smith, Bayville, N.J.

The Padre Pio book you sent is amazing... This is soul-saving stuff. God Bless. Pauline Moulder, Pensacola, FL.

I am Denis Larionov, Dr. of History, Minsk (Belarus). I am a lecturer at Belarusian State University, History Dept. Searching for the information concerning my interests I found your beautiful, interesting, informative and thought-provoking web-site. Denis Larionov, Belarus

Wow! I thank you with all my heart for your fabulous and incomparably important work. Margaret Moore

Greater thanks to Our Lord and Our Blessed Lady for bringing you to us. I came in contact with your monastery through my friend Francis Maria Ameh and was so overwhelmed that I called a group of like minded Traditional Catholics in my Parish... your video and audio tapes together with the book "OUTSIDE THE CATHOLIC CHURCH THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO SALVATION" which we downloaded from the Internet are spreading like wild fire here in Abuja and soon, many people may take side with us. John Bosco Maria Tyozenda, Nigeria

Last afternoon I viewed a video produced by you... It left me stunned and deeply moved. This morning I accessed your website for the first time and I am overwhelmed!!! ...while praying in the presence of The Blessed Sacrament in a Novus Ordo church, an inner/exterior/everywhere' voice quietly said to me "I am not here!!!" Yours sincerely, Peter de Niese, Australia

I feel like I ought to e-mail you. Pray for my faith to be strengthened. I'm 52, a Euromutt male, native of the Seattle area. My background is... well, if I ever find a valid priest, my first confession is going to take a long time. I have no hope of making a good one right off, for even though I have no criminal record there is still just too much. The videos on your website are... most convincing. I've learned the Hail Mary and the Our Father. 15 decades of the Rosary is... I'm working on it. The other day, the sky was blue... except for the chemtrails being laid down. There was one straight overhead, north-to-south. I was standing out in the open. I asked for... guidance. Then I looked up. There, in the chemtrail, was the most terrifying thing I have ever seen. It was an image of The Virgin, formed in the chemtrail, extending from head to foot across about 1/5 of the sky, with her head toward the south and feet to the north, in a pose of grace. To say that I was stunned, would be an understatement. I was unable to bear looking at Her visage, but was riveted, unable to look away or move for about a second, with her looking straight at me, then I had to look away—I just could not bear it, and when I looked back again it was just an ordinary chemtrail. I really don't know what more to say, except, it scared the hell out of me. And now I must get back to learning my 15 decades... Philip

I wanted, also, to take this opportunity to thank you and Most Holy Family Monastery for all the years of textbook training your publications and videos, and your DVDs and other literature, have provided. For the great majority of us, there has been no other source. I, admittedly, have used a great deal of your research material in my letters... In typing up my first draft... [of a letter to a baptism of desire supporter] there was something very miraculous that took place. About two days before, I had said a fervent prayer to the Holy Ghost to somehow show me that my theology on "baptism of desire" was correct. Well, when I typed my way to page three, paragraph three, and proceeded to type in WITH NO EXCEPTIONS, the underscoring lines automatically typed in at the very same time! This is totally impossible to do on any electric typewriter. One must go back and set the underscoring key and hit it for each letter and space that you want underlined. I sat back for a few moments in great awe but then remembered my prayer just a short time before. I thanked and praised God for His answer as I do now each time I reread this letter. Please share this with others... Robert B. Mann, Minnesota

I had the opportunity to speak with you on the telephone about the tremendous impact of the materials sent to me by the Most Holy Family Monastery — as well as, more importantly, my resulting desire to be baptized into the true, traditional Catholic Church... Thank you very much for taking the time to explain to me what steps I need now to take. Lance Lambdin, Lincoln, NE.

Reading that book on Vatican II [the Truth about What Really Happened to the Catholic Church after Vatican II] is amazing. It's like the red sea parted for me, and... after reading the Padre Pio book I learned about the importance of the Rosary. I really feel like God has touched me since I started to read this. I feel like I'm going down the right path for the first time in my life. Thank you so much. Michael Cotton, Laguna Woods, CA.

Thanks in advance for helping me!!... Vivian from Malaysia

Thank you for your website. It is a great light against the fog produced by the enemies of Christ. Robert McMorrow Jr., Strathclyde, Scotland

A few weeks ago I wrote to you a number of times accusing you of being in serious error in your interpretation of church teaching, and of bad faith in the propagation of that interpretation. You replied, warning me that I was placing my soul in peril by criticising the church in this way. You pointed out that I was guilty of intellectual pride and that my habit of repeatedly visiting your website indicated that, deep down, I knew what you were saying was true. That got me thinking. I began to feel guilty about my attacks on you. I struggled with my conscience for several days and nights until, finally, I decided to look more deeply into what you had to say. I approached a friend who had a high-speed broadband connection and asked if I could use his computer to view some of your videos. After watching just two of them, I was overcome with grief and remorse. The first one I watched was the exorcism video. At first it seemed to be just a scripted performance, but then I heard the priest say "Does Satan exist?" and in a blood-curdling shriek I heard the answer of the possessed: YES! This was unsettling enough, but then I moved on to perhaps the best-known of your videos - Death and the Journey into Hell. This was the one that clinched it for me. The vivid images of dead bodies, of gravesites, of headstones, of row after row of suburban houses, added to your compelling voiceover reminding us again and again that we will all die someday and our bodies will rot and decay and return to nothing but dust, moved me deeply. I am now ready to accept the church's teaching fully. I live in New Zealand. Please tell me what I need to do. Alan Vincent, New Zealand

You are truly my fellow brothers in the Faith. I am so very thankful for your diligent studies and holy works which help assure the One, True Faith of Christ remains upon the face of the earth. Charles Andre St-George

I am thankful with all my heart that I stumbled across your web site! Your work is truly anointed, the Truth finally is like food to my soul. Robert Iacomacci, Abbeville County, South Carolina

Greetings from India! I happened to visit your website just now and am so happy after reading the contents. Ravi Nadava, Awrangal, India

I am 47 years old. I was born into a family that professed the Catholic faith, so that was all I knew. My problem was, that even though my parents took me, my sister and 2 brothers to church every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation, I was not a very good Catholic. My parents made sure I received all the sacraments as good Catholics parents were obligated to do. I never really gave much reverence to the faith at all. I am a good person but that is not good enough. For 40 years I have been a terrible sinner. I was totally damning myself to hell and not giving it a 2nd thought. I went to church when it was convenient for me, I took communion when I probably shouldn't have and I went to confession to be absolved of the sins I participated in and then repeated some of those very sins again. This past summer I went through a divorce and moved into an apartment to start my new life. A friend of mine started to talk to me about the direction that the Catholic church had moved into & it actually peaked my interest more than I thought it would have. My friend gave me the Padre Pio book that you offer on your website to read and I was deeply moved and cried alot while I read that book. I started to look at my life and was overwhelmed with grief and guilt because of the direction I had been moving into. I decided to look into finding a priest that was ordained prior to 1968 to confess my sins too, validly. This was a new beginning for me. I was completely remorseful and I fully intended to turn my life around and persevere reverently, my Catholic faith. I happened to fall into mortal sin again and was sick about it. I prayed for forgiveness because I knew how wrong it was and how motivated I was just prior to that. A few evenings later, I went to bed after I prayed a mystery of the Rosary. In my quest for the transformation of my life I vowed to pray the Rosary everyday, all 15 mysteries. This night as I slept, I struggled with someone on my living room floor as I was hanging over the edge of my couch. I held this person's ankle with all my might to keep him down on the ground as he was struggling to get up to get at me with no doubt. My strength kept him down on the floor for quite sometime. I could not see who it was because the face was not in my view, only the body. Shortly thereafter the struggle seemed to subside. All I could think of at this point was, what is he thinking, why has he stopped the struggle with me, what is his next move. With these thoughts, I opened my eyes, propped up my head & looked over to the empty side of my bed. What I saw on the pillow next to my face was absolute horror. The head that lay on the pillow next to me was as black as the night, with snakes that were slithering, on the top and around his head. Then the whites of those eyes that were bulging out at me were as evil looking as could be, also the tongue that slithered in and out of his mouth was long, like the snakes on his head. He grinned at me in a very mocking way. After looking at that horrifying sight that lay next to me in my bed, my eyes couldn't turn away fast enough. My heart was beating so fast, so hard and so loud, it felt as if it was going to bust right out of my chest. I started to pray out to Our Blessed Mother to help me and to God Almighty for His forgiveness. When I looked back at the pillow, the creature was gone. I believe that the devil visited me personally to mock and tease me because I had turned away from a life of sinning so that I might be able to save my soul from an eternity in hell. He had plagued my soul for 40 years and I know that I have [angered him]. I have read The Secret of the Rosary by St. Louis De Montfort and I just wanted to let all the other "sinners" out there know that there is still time for them to convert themselves and save their souls, even more so if they say the Holy Rosary devoutly every day until death for the purpose of knowing the truth and obtaining contrition and pardon for their sins. Thanks for listening. Michele, Buffalo, NY.

I have been reading and listening to your website for a couple of days and I am amazed at what I have been learning. Everything you say fits into place like a key turning a lock. Colm Lawless, Dublin, Ireland.

We thank you very much for the insight. Now we know what's going on. Most Catholics we know have no clue as to what is going on. Agnes Williams, Hillsdale, MI.

I simply had to write to you to thank you all for this amazing information. I often sit in front of the computer and ask the Holy Spirit to guide me in my searches. I ask the Spirit to reveal what I need to know next to move forward and this seems to work. The other night, I was brought to your website (I still don't know how I found it!) and now everything has fallen into place. I stayed up all night reading your page and printed pages out - we discussed them together and we both feel like we have been reborn! We can't thank you enough! Everything makes sense now. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your comprehensive website. We have been praising the Lord since we found it and will continue to pray for you all daily and the work that you do. Claire, Liverpool, UK.

This book on Padre Pio was the greatest book about his life that I have ever read. I enjoyed it so much. Thank you. Mary Ciccio, King of Prussia, PA.

May God bless you for pulling me out of heresy. Allan Simoes, Goa, India
